

CPIN Distinguished Lecture/ Inaugural Seminar in Memory of John Roder

Friday, October 28, 2022

12:00 PM

Mauro Costa-Mattioli, PhD

Professor, Department of Neuroscience, Director, Memory and Brain Research Center (MBRC), Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas; Principal Investigator, Altos Labs.

'Rejuvenating the brain by resetting resilience networks'

In Person: WI 1016, Wilson Hall – New College, 40 Willcocks Street;

Online: <https://utoronto.zoom.us/j/89348150726>

(hybrid lecture)

Reception to follow at the Faculty Club (41 Willcocks) from 1:00pm-2:30pm
Snacks and refreshments will be served.

Hosted By:

Joseph Culotti, PhD, Professor, Molecular Genetics, University of Toronto; Senior Investigator, Lunenfeld - Tanenbaum Research Institute, Mount Sinai Hospital

Co-sponsored by:

The John Roder Memorial Fund

Please advise p.neuroscience@utoronto.ca of any accommodation needs or dietary restrictions